WILD CONNECTIONS

An informal course to help you to slow down, reconnect with nature and discover
your creative potential

23rd - 30th July 2011.

Join the SpeyGrian Educational Trust for an inspirational week on the beautiful island of Tanera
Mor in the Summer Isles near Ullapool

The week

Home to naturalist Frank Fraser Darling in the 1940's, Tanera Mor is the perfect place to relax and immerse yourself in the natural world.

No formal programme is planned for the week but craftworker Jan Kilpatrick and poet/writer Christian McEwen will offer daily creative journaling workshops to suit those of you who are interested. There are also options for sailing, canoeing and walking.

The Wild Connections course will cost £350 and is open to all.

In 2010, participants included teachers, artists, ecologists and environmental educators.

There are 16 places available - to secure your place, complete and return the booking form on the back page with your non returnable deposit of £100.

The full balance of £250 must be paid by 1st June 2011.

Costs include:

- Ferry fare & full board accommodation in twin bedded rooms on Tanera Mor for 7 nights
- Creative Journaling workshops

For a small extra charge, the following activities are usually available:-

- kayak hire (experienced paddlers only)
- situpon kayak hire (available to all for use in sheltered bay only)
- boat trips around the Summer Isles
- dinghy sailing hire & tuition

I would like to attend the SpeyGrian Wild Connections course from 23rd - 30th July 2011.
